Inside this issue:

Americanism	2	Yes, we studied US history, the wisdom of the Founding Fathers and the effective separation of powers in the three branches of government. We memorized, took a written test, a verbal test and interviewed, but, it was all worth the legal process.
Saving Canine Officers	3	I recall my swearing in ceremony with joy and elation! Reciting the Pledge of Allegiance and taking the oath to be loyal to this great nation built on Judeo-Christian values was such a privilege. The United States of America is exceptional. Its power comes from its people and the Constitution. On my ceremony day, 93 people from nations all over the world were welcomed.
State Liaison Report	4	Growing up in an evangelical Christian family, I realized my beliefs lined up closely with conservative Republican values. Faith, family, hard work and service are solid foundations. It's an honor for me to be part of the Golden Corridor Republican Women's Board where I have had the pleasure to meet outstanding, like-minded women from various walks of life with a common purpose. My work as a naturalized citizen has just begun and I am excited to partner with you.

President's Pen:

By Brook Fulks

For this month's President's Pen, Brook wanted to highlight such an incredible event in Sam Abiog's life. Please enjoy her words found below:

By Sam Abiog

This past Christmas, my family not only celebrated Christ's birth and the powerful gift of salvation, but I was blessed to be the first member in the Abiog family to become an American citizen, on December 28, 2018. In the words of President Trump I am now, "part of the American family."

My husband, Rolly, and I moved to Allen, Texas from Canada in 2007 along with our four daughters Lauren, Sarah, Haley and Esther due to a job relocation. I stayed home to raise my 4 girls and ventured to engage in the Allen community and at church.

We quickly learned that in the United States political debate was healthy and vibrant. Freedoms are cherished and opinions are polarizing. Most of the American people did not want to conform to a "one size fits all" mentality. They applaud individual ingenuity, seek the greater good even when circumstances are tough and are the most generous people in the world.

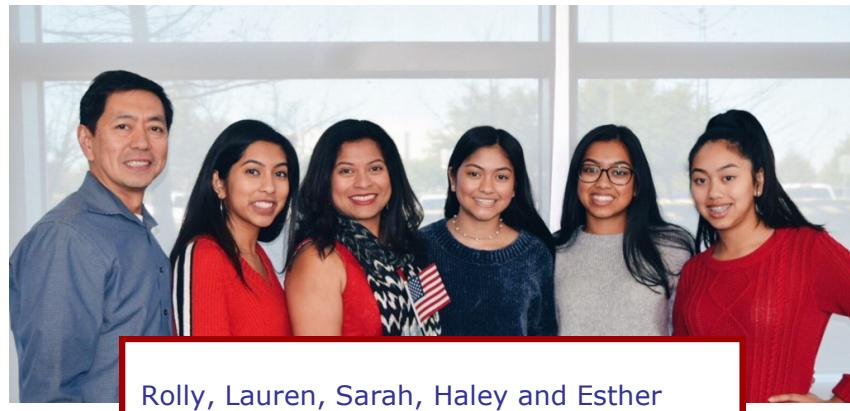

As an immigrant, (born in Pakistan to Sri Lankan & Goan parents) I preferred not to be categorized based on the color of my skin, culture or religion, but to contribute towards society based on my God-given talents and skillset. It was my privilege to serve on various PTA boards, chair events, committees and volunteer at local churches.

After completing the legal process requirement of living in the United States as permanent residents, we decided to apply for citizenship and participate in voting rights to make a difference here in the Collin County district.

Americanism:

Submitted By Erin Anderson

"I favor the policy of economy, not because I wish to save money, but because I wish to save people. The men and women of this country who toil are the ones who bear the cost of the government. Every dollar that we carelessly waste means that their life will be so much the more meager."

– Republican Calvin Coolidge, 30th president of the United States

This should be a nonpartisan
issue... that we care for aging,

The Sheriffs' Association of Texas bill would address (1) setting standards for an animal's retirement, (2) identifying animals suitable for private adoption, (3) setting standards and preferences for persons to qualify to adopt a law-enforcement animal, (4) providing that a transfer under the provision may be made without charge to the recipient, (5) requiring a few provisions in an adoption contract to improve the likelihood that the adoption serves its public purpose, and (6) limiting the local government's liability in such adoptions. Really, this should be a nonpartisan issue... that we care for aging, sick, and injured animals that have served the public, instead of treating them like unwanted property.

As Chairman of the Legislative Committee for the Sheriffs' Association of Texas, Collin County Sheriff Jim Skinner is proposing a bill this session that would improve a county and city's ability to humanely retire law-enforcement animals, such as dogs and horses. Sheriff's offices and police departments customarily retire law-enforcement animals when they are no longer capable of performing their duties. The goal is usually to place the animals with qualified people who can properly and humanely care for them. However, unlike federal law that allows former handlers to adopt their animals when they are due for retirement, Texas law considers canine control horses "property" and for them to be sold or you might imagine, this the law enforcement loves and depends on geous animals every

A TASTE OF HISTORY

GCRW really became a cohesive group around Sam Johnson's first campaign for U.S. Congress. Many of the families at the time were homeschooling. After the students finished their school work, they did literature drops at homes while on their skates. When Sam was going to have his oath of office in Washington, a plane was chartered to take the families on a field trip to show appreciation for their work.

Since that time, we've campaigned for hundreds of candidates. Attorney General Ken Paxton has been instrumental in helping to find conservative candidates and giving advice on campaigns. He has impressed on us that the nations of the world are watching America. Our nation is watching Texas and Texas is watching Collin County. We cannot sit back and let the Democrats or even liberal Republicans step into leadership. We are not in this alone. We are stronger together.

Volunteer Spotlight:

Maggie Whitt and Maria Garcia are both primary members of Golden Corridor Republican Women. They also lead two of the newer, yet incredibly influential, groups in Collin County. Maria is currently president of the Hispanic Republican Club of North Texas (HRCNT). HRCNT has hosted speakers such as Pastor Rafael Cruz, radio host Chris Salcedo, and our friends from Empower Texans, Erin Anderson and Tony Ortiz. Maggie is currently leading the Minority Engagement Group (MEG). MEG has civic-minded patriots who seek to re-engage minority communities on proven Conservative principles and ideals. Both Maggie and Maria have shown leadership that is inspiring. GCRW is both women not only actively involved in the Hispanic and Minority En- and Hispanic Re- groups are finding North Texas political leadership that have shown is in- thankfulness. GCRW will be co-hosting with HRCNT on March 25th to welcome our Republican Party of Texas Vice-Chair Alma Perez. Thank you for your patriotism Maggie and Maria!
