I STAND

Those who refuse to stand for the American flag seem to have an array of excuses for making it the symbol of their discontent. Some on the right claim that the federal government is too tyrannical and they can no longer participate in pledging allegiance to the flag. Some on the left claim racism or their dislike of President Trump prevents them from standing during the national anthem. None of these excuses have a logical connection to our nation's flag.

The flag is not a symbol of the federal government, racism, or Donald Trump. It represents our nation and the freedoms we enjoy. It symbolizes our military men and women who have fought and served—and who are fighting and serving today—to protect those freedoms. It drapes the coffins of our service members and first responders, in profound respect for the ultimate price they paid to protect us.

The irony is lost on those who claim that the First Amendment protects their right to denigrate the American flag... considering that the flag is actually a symbol of that freedom. So, God bless Americans everywhere who honor their country and their flag. Those who take a stand, and stand.

Republican Women's clubs in Texas! Debbie's vision and hard work continue today as she serves on the Texas State Republican Executive Committee. As usual, she goes way beyond her job description volunteering for conservative common sense government.

Angela Paxton is known to many for her bold leadership representing our values. It is with humor and fun she will be singing and sharing. You will fall in love with both of these dynamic women!

We are meeting in the lovely home of Keresa Richardson in McKinney, TX. In order to enter the gated community, please print a copy of the invitation and put it on your car dash. This will expedite your entry! Parking is available in the empty lot just a couple of houses from Keresa's house.

If you are not able to attend, PLEASE email me and let me know you are canceling. We have ladies on a wait list that would like to attend. We are limited to 50 ladies. If you are bringing a guest, I need their name. PLEASE forward this information on to your guest.
